

LICC Summer Appeal

We're excited about the ever-growing demand we're experiencing from individuals, churches and denominations for the insights, perspectives and resources LICC brings. And we're finding a real hunger from individuals and church leaders to change their churches to put whole-life discipleship at the heart of their church life and to equip individual Christians to be more fruitful in their day to day lives.

Our budget this year stands at £864,000 – some 75% higher than just 5 years ago, and yet in any given month we are only assured of half the income we need.

Please consider whether you can help us with a one-off donation or a monthly standing order to help keep LICC's momentum growing.
