

Looking for a venue?

LICC's historic St Peter's, in the heart of London's bustling West End, offers a flexible and beautiful venue for a wide range of commercial or private functions and may be ideal for you.

Offering outstanding value, St Peter's is situated less than 100 yards from Oxford Street (and about 2 minutes walk from Bond Street Underground Station).

St Peter's can be used for lectures, conferences, workshops, launch parties, banquets, wedding receptions, concerts or choir rehearsals. Groups of up to 120 can be accommodated and our comfortable seating can be arranged theatre style or around workshop or banqueting tables.

Our smaller seminar room is ideal for training events, committees, working lunches, team or managers meetings and can seat up to 16 around our modern conference table.

We have a range of equipment that is available for hire including: projectors, screens, flip charts, TV & DVD, WiFi, teleconference facilities, photocopying, telephones, and there's even a grand piano! There is built-in PA and recording equipment. Catering can be arranged and a separate dining area is available.
